Dyntra ivzw Wins An Oscar For Politics

The 1st Belgium Organization To Win One Of The Napolitans Awards

Brussels - Belgium: October 6th, 2021 – The Washington Academy of Political Arts & Sciences has announced last week that Dyntra ivzw is the winner of one of this year's Napolitans, the Global Democracy Award. The Napolitans are considered the most prestigious and coveted awards in political communication, and are recognized by international media as the Oscars for Politics. The award recognizes Dyntra's fight for democracy and freedom in the world as well as its work in promoting transparency and open government. Some of the other winners of the Napolitans this year are the top campaign advisers at the highest level such as Jennifer O'Malley Dillon (Campaign Manager of the Year) and Rob Flaherty (Consultant of the Year: On a Digital Campaign) who were key for the triumph of the current president of the United States of America, Joe Biden.

"We are very proud to be awarded the Napolitan for Global Democracy. Receiving the highest award in the political industry tells us that what we started 7 years ago has been really worthwhile." says Juan Manuel Gómez Roa, President of Dyntra ivzw. "This award confirms that our work is very important and we will continue to fight for more transparency, open government and democracy around the world."

The award ceremony will take place on November 17th during the gala at the George Mason University in Washington DC – USA.

About Dyntra ivzw: Dyntra ivzw is an international non-profit organization based in Brussels (Belgium) that promotes transparency in the area of municipal, regional and central government, politicians and the private sector as a transforming value of society. To achieve its objective, it uses Dyntra.org as the citizen-driven dynamic transparency evaluation platform that allows anyone at any time to evaluate entities all over the world.
